

Julia A. Richman, DDS Pediatric Dentist

Education: University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill School of Dentistry, University of Washington with a master's degree in Pediatric Dentistry and a Master of Public Health degree, advanced training in forensic odontology.

Dental Interests: Care for children with special needs, including autism, treatment and prevention of dental injuries, and reduction of dental anxiety. Extensive training on patients who have special healthcare needs. BLS, CPR, and First Aid Instructor.

Hobbies: Dr. Richman serves on the Snoqualmie Valley Little League Board of Directors. She and her family enjoy many outdoor activities and sports together, including golf, baseball, hiking, kayaking and snowshoeing. During her spare time, Dr. Richman enjoys golf, scuba diving, paddleboarding and cooking.